MEET YOUR GRAND MARSHALS

GRAND MARSHAL #1

Regina Hillman

Regina Hillman is a law professor at the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law where she teaches Legal Methods, Professional Responsibility, and Gender & the Law.

Prior to teaching law full time, Regina was co-counsel in Tanco v. Haslam, the Tennessee marriage equality case that challenged the constitutionality of Tennessee's constitutional and statutory bans on recognition of valid out-of-state same-sex marriages. That case was combined with other Sixth Circuit marriage equality cases from Ohio, Michigan, and Kentucky, and went up to the United States Supreme Court as Obergefell v. Hodges. The Supreme Court's favorable ruling on June 26, 2015, resulted in marriage equality nationwide.

Regina's scholarship focuses on the advancement of LGBTQ+ legal rights, including the history and progression of LGBTQ+ rights in Tennessee, and Title VII federal discrimination protections for LGBTQ+ employees. Her current work-in-progress analyzes the Supreme Court's Title VII decision that sexual orientation and gender identity are protected under the federal statute, including the resulting broad application to federal discrimination laws, anticipated challenges, and the need to codify these protections constitutionally.

Regina graduated from The University of Memphis in 1997 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and graduated from the University of Tennessee College of Law in 2001. While in Knoxville, Regina taught legal writing as an adjunct law professor at the University of Tennessee College of Law while practicing law full-time in the area of complex litigation involving business, employment, and corporate matters.

Regina is married to the love of her life, Natalie Hillman, and they share an embarrassing number of Standard Poodles, Chihuahuas, and a toy poodle, Lilli.

ARTavius Veasey

International award-winning actor, published author, editor-in-chief for ARTist Feature Magazine, graphic designer, and kidney transplant recipient ARTavius Veasey is the epitome of ART and positive representation. Deemed as one of the 2021 LOUD 100 LGBTQ people of color for DBQ magazine and achieving the honor of being a Gold medalist athlete at the Transplant Games of America, he always strives to rise above adversity and lead by example.

ARTavius is grateful for the opportunity to have volunteered and served on boards with many LGBTQ organizations in the city, such as Mid-South Pride, The Paige, Friends of Georges, Friends for Life, OUT Memphis, etc. He continues to work within the community to encourage a betterment for black representation and blaze the trail for the next generation of black LGBTQ+ people.

Standing in his truth and on the shoulders of other black gay men that came before him, he understands the importance of his role in the community, the power of transparency, and the influence he brings to the table. He showcases his version of a positive perspective on what black and gay look like, create opportunities and safe spaces for mentorship, and illustrates a common ground where LGBTQ and non-LGBTQ people could coexist and work together.

Kim Chi

Kim Chi is a 7' tall, live-action anime character and high-fashion model. Born in the U.S., raised in South Korea, and currently based in Chicago, Kim is cultural hybrid with a preternatural understanding of style and conceptual fashion. One cannot bound Kim Chi with any stylistic stereotypes. She deftly absorbs and interprets our contemporary cultural milieu with unflinching focus. An ever-evolving chameleon, Kim never fails to surprise and delight with her larger than life looks and her high standard of work.

Kim's work encapsulates the transcendental nature of drag, as the seemingly simple act of a man putting on a dress is transformed into fine art. Follow her career to experience the possibilities of her otherworldly creative vision.

Brody Ray

Brody's life started out different from most. Brody, born female, knew that his body didn't match what he felt on the inside, as young as a toddler. Brody's mother remembers him kicking the back of her seat in the McDonald's Drive-Thru until he got the boy toy in his happy meal, and jumping around in diapers and cowboy boots with a guitar singing at the top of his lungs, doing all the things boys did.

As Brody got older his love for music grew as well as his desire to become the man he always felt he was on the inside. Brody got the top surgery and hormones he needed to complete the male image he had always seen himself having. During this process, TLC got in contact with Brody and they captured some of his most trying times going through this journey to become who he was inside, struggling with relationships, hormones, surgeries, and family. Brody's episode was featured on a show called Strange Sex, on May 8th, 2011 and they named his episode "Right Guy, Wrong Body". You can find his episode still airing on the Oprah Winfrey Network, Discovery Fit and Health, TLC, Netflix, and YouTube.

Shortly after the airing of the episode, Brody lost his voice due to his body and voice trying to adjust to the testosterone injections once a week. Brody worked hard daily retraining and trying to recover his singing voice. After two years of dedication, Brody was able to sing again and sound like he's always imagined with a deeper, more fitting voice. He then found the confidence to audition for shows like American Idol and The Voice.

At the beginning of 2018, Brody auditioned for America's Got Talent, earning a chance to sing in front of the Celebrity judges Howie Mandel, Mel B, Heidi Klum, and Simon Cowell.

After shocking the judges and crowd with his story of transitioning, he then went on to sing his stunning and moving rendition of "Stand In the Light" by Jordan Smith. Simon commented by saying he was "A force to be reckoned with." His first performance aired on June 26th, 2018, earning him 4 yeses from all of the judges. Brody moved on to the 'Judge Cuts' where he got to perform an original song requested by Simon called "Wake Your Dreams". The episode is on Season 13 and can be found streaming on Netflix and YouTube.

Shortly after the airing of America's Got Talent, Brody was quick to release 3 new singles, 'Wake Your Dreams', 'Stand In the Light' and 'Take It Too Far' with Skyfall Records in Nashville. All of his new music can be found on all streaming and digital platforms worldwide.

Elevation

1. the action or fact of elevating or being elevated:

ElevationMemphis was born out of a group of individuals with great ambition and a positive outlook on their musical journey. We are one of the most multi-cultural and diverse bands in the city of Memphis, TN. Between the core members of the band, we share over 20 years of musical talents ranging from studying at Berkeley School of Music to recording professionally on multiple albums. Because of our extensive musical training, it has allowed us to perform not only as a full piece band, but also as a melodic, eclectic acoustic set. Our arrangements are definitely explored outside of the traditional box while keeping the integrity of the cover songs we perform. Our objective is exactly as our name; to lift and elevate the spirits of any and everyone who comes in contact with our music. The musical influencers who have attributed to molding us to the artists that we are continuously evolving into, range is as broad as the genres themselves. Book ElevationMemphis for your next event and prepare to be elevated.

Quinn

QUINN is a singer-songwriter based out of Memphis TN. QUINN has had the opportunity to sing background vocals for Chinese Connection Dub Embassy(CCDE), Tennessee's premier reggae band, along with singing around the city with artistic greats like Tonya Dyson, and Carmen Hicks, naming a few, even to having his own solo engagements. Now joining Mobius Pieces, the band has now produced their latest project called "Be Real With Your Intentions" which pens an ode to "the human experience", lavished with lush harmonies, vibe-ready beats, and messages that one takes with them throughout life. (available on all streaming platforms). QUINN's style is very jazz-influenced that blends hip hop and r&b stylings to his overall sound. A good time to be had when QUINN is involved.

Alex Walls

Alejandro Paredes aka Alex Walls has been performing in and around Memphis since 2015, the year he came from Venezuela. His repertoire includes many popular Latin American songs, usually accompanied by the guitar, but most recently with the Ukulele. He also plays many English songs, mainly from the 50s and 60s. He has had the opportunity to play in many venues and events including the Graceland Guesthouse, the Hu Hotel, Dixon Galleries, Crosstown Concourse, Theater Memphis, The Health and Sciences park, and The Evergreen Theater, and was also a special guest at the 2018 Memphis Blues Society Challenge. This year he performs for the first time at the Mid South Pride Festival, thanks to his connection to Friends of George's, with whom he has collaborated many times in the past as a light operator. You can follow him on Facebook or Instagram at @AlexWallsMemphis.

STAGE HOSTS

Freak Nasty

Phillis Lewis was born in Chicago but raised in Memphis and a graduate of the University of Memphis with a B.A. in Criminal Justice & Criminology. Phillis comes with years of experience not only working with the LGBTQ+ Community but has many years of experience in case management, grant monitoring, trauma-informed care, housing monitoring, and facilitation. Beginning her career at the Shelby County District Attorney's Office where she worked there for almost 9 years. She is the current President of the Memphis/Shelby Domestic & Sexual Violence Council, Committee Member for the Inclusivity Committee for Tennessee Coalition to End Domestic & Sexual Violence, and LGBTQ Representative/Vice-Chair for the Governing Council for the Memphis/Shelby County Homeless Consortium. Phillis is the former Vice-President of Mid-South Pride. As the CEO of Love Doesn't Hurt, Phillis Lewis works to help provide emergency services to victims of crime in the LGBTQ+ community, addressing barriers this population faces while seeking social services, and helping to educate providers and the community to practice cultural humility.

DeWayne Murrell

Dewayne Murrell is a Memphis native who began his work in the community in 2003. His first contribution to the community was in the capacity of HIV prevention with Black gay men. Although as a whole, LGBTQ+ people faced difficulties, Dewayne focused primarily on the added hardships of being both LGBTQ+ and a person of color. This work helped him to identify barriers that systematically oppress and disenfranchise Black LGBTQ+ people in Memphis. Dewayne then developed an idea to offer a positive foundation and services to assist Black LGBTQ+ folk that fell through the cracks from other resources in the city. That idea was the beginning of his early plan for what now is the 501c3, The PAIGE Inc.

Justin Allen Tate

Justin Allen Tate ( Mr. Mid-South Pride 2020) returns to the Memphis stage after recently being named the 2019 Broadway World Regional Best Actor in a Musical for his performance of Lola in Kinky Boots at POTS. ## Aubrey Ombre

Hello, my name is Aubrey ombre I am a 32-year-old trans woman. I have been doing drag shows for 10 years going on 11, I have been an activist since 2003, and I have also been a karaoke hostess and DJ. I have helped out with numerous charities and have mentored a lot of the Next Generation that look up to me. I'm also a former Miss Dru's place, a former Miss Mid-South Pride, I am also your current Miss Gay Memphis. My journey started back on October 15th, 2010 when I first stepped on the scene I knew nothing about clubs, drag, or the LGBTQ. I was pretty much a book worm I stayed home and studied and work and went to school. My mom and dad are Christian and strong in their beliefs and somehow have life planned out for me to live in their Shadows but thankfully it does not work out like that because I became someone greater so I had my first shows in 2010 and happy climbing my way to the top every since. I will continue being humble and doing for others in my community and continue giving everyone hope and making people Smile as I do for myself.
